Trainer - Leader - Coach

A Trainer-of-Trainers Training

TIER I JUNE 3-7, 2019
TIER 2/3 JUNE 17-21, 2019

Description

Five days of interactive and intensive training to prepare you to be a trainer-of-trainer for Positive Behavior Interventions and Support (PBIS) in your district and state. Learn the skills necessary to be an expert in training, coaching, evaluation and sustainability of multi-tiered systems of support.

Be a part of the emerging global PBIS Professional Learning Network and a champion in improving student outcomes through decreased behavior problems, increased academic achievement and improved school climate and safety for all. You can make a difference with your leadership.

Objectives

- Understand the science and framework of PBIS, district readiness and implementation scope and sequence
- Review research articles relevant to PBIS, MTSS, and sustainability of systems change
- Learn to present 10 critical components of a Tier 1 PBIS system (Tier 1 TLC) or present 10 programs and interventions of a Tier 2 and Tier 3 PBIS system (Tier 2/3 TLC)
- Identify a process for data-based decision-making and using national tools to evaluate PBIS fidelity and outcomes
- Analyze the coaching continuum and practice facilitation skills for leading school and district PBIS teams
- Examine seven elements of effective presenters to support your role as trainer, leader & coach (TLC)
